

It is a crime for someone to hurt or abuse you because of who you are, where you are from, or because of your religion.

If this happens to you, the police are here to help. They want to stop crime wherever it happens: in the street, in your home, or online.

The police want you to report all hate crime. You don't have to speak to them direct. There are other ways you can report it.

Reporting to the police

-  Call 999 in an emergency
-  Call 101 in a non-emergency
-  Online form
westyorkshire.police.uk/hatecrime

If it happens when you are on the train

-  Emergencies 999
-  Non-emergencies 0800 405 040
